

Full back change

BOBBY Davies, the Wycombe Wanderers left back, is involved in another match while the Blues travel to Barking tomorrow (Saturday) in the Rothmans Isthmian League. Bob is getting married!

This means Wycombe will have to re-shuffle their back four with either Dave Bullock or John Priestley taking over. Should Priestley get the vote, Gavin Fraser would probably fill the midfield vacancy.

Manager Ted Powell may also make changes up front where Wycombe's main problems lie at present. Veteran Tony Horseman is in line for a return.

After two successive league draws, Wanderers will be keen to get back on winning form but Barking, who have climbed the table rapidly in recent weeks are currently proving a difficult side to beat.

Hungerford for Blues

WYCOMBE Wanderers must travel to Hungerford Town in the Rothmans Hellenic League on Saturday, March 5 in the semi-final of the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup. Hungerford recorded an emphatic 3-0 victory at home to Milton Keynes in their third round replay on Saturday.

Slough Town are already through to the final. They overcame Wokingham Town 1-0 at Wokingham on Saturday in the semi-final.
